INDEX for Volume 23

Fall 1991-Summer 1992

Author Index

Bardwell, Lisa. Success Stories: Imagery by Example. Fall, 5.

Beiswenger, Ronald, Elaine L. Sturges, and Richard Jones. Water Education in Wyoming: Assessing Educators' Knowledge of Water Topics and Their Use in the Elementary Curriculum. Fall, 24.

Buchan, Graeme D. Propagating Environmental Science and Ethic: A Vacation School as a University/High School Link. Winter, 10.

Cherif, Abour H. Barriers to Ecology Education in North American High Schools: Another Alternative Perspective. Spring, 36.

Chess, Caron, and Kandice L. Salomone. Rhetoric and Reality: Risk Communication in Government Agencies. Spring, 28.

Disinger, John F., and Marylin Lisowski. The Effect of Field-Based Instruction on Student Understandings of Ecological Concepts. Fall, 19.

Eagles, Paul F. J., and Michelle Richardson. The Status of Environmental Education at Field Centers of Ontario Schools. Summer, 9.

Ferreira, J. G., and C. P. Loubser. Environmental Education in South Africa in Light of the Tbilisi and Moscow Conferences. Summer, 31.

Floyd, Donald W., and Pamela A. Wright. Integrating Undergraduate Research and Teaching in Environmental Education: Ohio State's Earth Day Project. Summer, 22.

Fortner, Rosanne W., and Victor J. Mayer. Repeated Measures of Students' Marine and Great Lakes Awareness. Fall, 30.

Gifford, Robert, and Donald W. Hine. Fear Appeals, Individual Differences, and Environmental Concern. Fall, 36.

Ham, Sam H., and David S. Sutherland. Child-to-Parent Transfer of Environmental Ideology in Costa Rican Families: An Ethnographic Case Study. Spring, 9.

Hine, Donald W., and Robert Gifford. Fear Appeals, Individual Differences, and Environmental Concern. Fall, 36.

Hungerford, Harold R., John M. Ramsey, and Trudi L. Volk. Environmental Education in the K-12 Curriculum: Finding a Niche. Winter, 35.

Jickling, Bob. Viewpoint. Why I Don't Want My Children to be Educated for Sustainable Development. Summer, 5.

Jones, Richard, Ronald Beiswenger, and Elaine L. Sturges. Water Education in Wyoming: Assessing Educators' Knowledge of Water Topics and Their Use in the Elementary Curriculum. Fall, 24.

Lansana, Florence M. Distinguishing Potential Recyclers from Nonrecyclers: A Basis for Developing Recycling Strategies. Winter, 16.

Lisowski, Marylin, and John F. Disinger. The Effect of Field-Based Instruction on Student Understandings of Ecological Concepts. Fall, 19.

Loubser, C. P., and J. G. Ferreira. Environmental Education in South Africa in Light of the Tbilisi and Moscow Conferences. Summer, 31.

Magill, Arthur W. Outdoor Recreation Careers: A Need for Socially Sensitive People and Training in the Social Sciences. Spring, 4.

Marcinkowski, Thomas J. Editorial. America 2000 and Reform in Science Education: Where Does EE Fit? Winter, 4.

Mayer, Victor J., and Rosanne W. Fortner. Repeated Measures of Students' Marine and Great Lakes Awareness. Fall, 30.

Niedermeyer, Fred C. A Checklist for Reviewing Environmental Education Programs. Winter, 46.

Palmer, Joy A. Connoisseurship and Creativity: Monitoring Creative Thinking Abilities in Primary School Children in England. Winter, 17.

Ramsey, John M., Harold R. Hungerford, and Trudi L. Volk. Environmental Education in the K-12 Curriculum: Finding a Niche. Winter, 35.

Reisner, Ann, and Gerry Walter. Developing Student Opinions on Agricultural Issues. Summer, 15.

Richardson, Michelle, and Paul F. J. Eagles. The Status of Environmental Education at Field Centers of Ontario Schools. Summer, 9.

Salomone, Kandice L., and Caron Chess. Rhetoric and Reality: Risk Communication in Government Agencies. Spring 28.

Singletary, Ted J. Case Studies of Selected High School Environmental Education Classes. Summer, 35.

Sivek, Dan. Book review. The Audubon Ark: A History of the National Audubon Society, by Frank Graham. Summer, 41.

Slocombe, D. Scott, and Caroline Van Bers. Seeking Substance in Sustainable Development. Fall, 11.

Smith-Sebasto, N. J. Book review. Mother Earth Spirituality, by Ed. McGaa. Summer, 42.

Smith-Sebasto, N. J. The Revised Perceived Environmental Control Measure: A Review and Analysis. Winter, 24.

Smith-Sebasto, N. J. Video review. In These Ancient Trees, by the National Wildlife Federation. Summer, 41.

Sturges, Elaine L., Ronald Beiswenger, and Richard Jones. Water Education in Wyoming: Assessing Educators' Knowledge of Water Topics and Their Use in the Elementary Curriculum. Fall, 24.

Sutherland, David S., and Sam H. Ham. Child-to-Parent Transfer of Environmental Ideology in Costa Rican Families: An Ethnographic Case Study. Spring, 9.

Van Bers, Caroline, and D. Scott Slocombe. Seeking Substance in Sustainable Development. Fall, 11.

Volk, Trudi L., John M. Ramsey, and Harold R. Hungerford. Environmental Education in the K-12 Curriculum: Finding a Niche. Winter, 35.

Walter, Gerry, and Ann Reisner. Developing Student Opinions on Agricultural Issues. Summer, 15.

Wright, Pamela A., and Donald W. Floyd. Integrating Undergraduate Research and Teaching in Environmental Education: Ohio State's Earth Day Project. Summer, 22.

Title Index

America 2000 and Reform in Science Education: Where Does EE Fit? Editorial. Thomas J. Marcinkowski. Winter, 4.

Barriers to Ecology Education in North American High Schools: Another Alternative Perspective. Abour H. Cherif. Spring, 36.

Case Studies of Selected High School Environmental Education Classes. Ted J. Singletary. Summer, 35.

A Checklist for Reviewing Environmental Education Programs. Fred C. Niedermeyer. Winter, 46.

Child-to-Parent Transfer of Environmental Ideology in Costa Rican Families: An Ethnographic Case Study. David S. Sutherland and Sam H. Ham. Spring, 9.

Connoisseurship and Creativity: Monitoring Creative Thinking Abilities in Primary School Children in England. Joy A. Palmer. Winter, 17.

Developing Student Opinions on Agricultural Issues. Gerry Walter and Ann Reisner. Summer, 15.

Distinguishing Potential Recyclers from Nonrecyclers: A Basis for Developing Recycling Strategies. Florence M. Lansana. Winter, 16.

The Effect of Field-Based Instruction on Student Understandings of Ecological Concepts. Marylin Lisowski and John F. Disinger. Fall, 19.

Environmental Education in South Africa in Light of the Tbilisi and Moscow Conferences. C. P. Loubser and J. G. Ferreira. Summer, 31.

Environmental Education in the K-12 Curriculum: Finding a Niche. John M. Ramsey, Harold R. Hungerford, and Trudi L. Volk. Winter, 35.

Fear Appeals, Individual Differences, and Environmental Concern. Donald W. Hine and Robert Gifford. Fall, 36.

Integrating Undergraduate Research and Teaching in Environmental Education: Ohio State's Earth Day Project. Pamela A. Wright and Donald W. Floyd. Summer, 22.

Outdoor Recreation Careers: A Need for Socially Sensitive People and Training in the Social Sciences. Arthur W. Magill. Spring, 4.

Propagating Environmental Science and Ethic: A Vacation School as a University/High School Link. Graeme D. Buchan. Winter, 10.

Repeated Measures of Students' Marine and Great Lakes Awareness. Rosanne W. Fortner and Victor J. Mayer. Fall, 30.

The Revised Perceived Environmental Control Measure: A Review and Analysis. N. J. Smith-Sebasto. Winter, 24.

Rhetoric and Reality: Risk Communication in Government Agencies. Caron Chess and Kandice L. Salamone. Spring, 28.

Seeking Substance in Sustainable Development. D. Scott Slocombe and Caroline Van Bers. Fall, 11.

The Status of Environmental Education at Field Centers of Ontario Schools. Paul F. J. Eagles and Michelle Richardson. Summer, 9.

Success Stories: Imagery by Example. Lisa Bardwell. Fall, 5.

Water Education in Wyoming: Assessing Educators' Knowledge of Water Topics and Their Use in the Elementary Curriculum. Ronald Beiswenger, Elaine L. Sturges, and Richard Jones. Fall, 24.

Why I Don't Want My Children to be Educated for Sustainable Development. Bob Jickling. Summer, 5.

Book and Video Reviews

The Audubon Ark: A History of the National Audubon Society, by Frank Graham. Reviewed by Dan Sivek. Summer, 41.

In These Ancient Trees, by the National Wildlife Federation. Reviewed by N. J. Smith-Sebasto. Summer, 41.

Mother Earth Spirituality, by Ed McGaa. Reviewed by N. J. Smith-Sebasto. Summer, 42.